

Penny's Puppet Productions Presents Workshops & Classes

Penny Walter presented her Master thesis on Teaching with puppets to earn her Masters in Education in 2001. Now she would like to share her research, knowledge and talents to Teachers, Parents, and Caregivers, Employers and of course Children.

“The Audience can become so involved with the interaction of the puppet that they do not realize they are learning.”

- Teaching With Puppets: Available for Teachers (for all age groups) Penny will come in and give concrete ideas and examples on how you can integrate puppets and puppetry into your current curriculum. This could be a single session with tips and ideas in general, or a more inclusive long term project sessions.
- Making Puppets Come Alive: Teachers, Families and Children. Penny will work with workshop participants in creating a characters personality, voice and movements. Single session and multi sessions available (Multi session culminates with a short performance by the participants).
